Supervising in the Public Sector

The Supervising in the Public Sector intensive certificate program is designed to deliver essential leadership development for new and experienced supervisors in government.

Supervisors shape the employee experience—their actions directly influence morale, engagement and performance across government. As agencies face challenges with retention, morale and limited resources, effective leaders are essential to keeping employees supported, accountable and productive.

The Supervising in the Public Sector intensive equips supervisors and leaders with the tools, mindset, and confidence to lead with purpose and impact. Grounded in public service values, it helps leaders build self-awareness, strengthen communication, and foster accountability and team performance—ensuring agencies deliver on their mission to the communities they serve.

Drawing on the Partnership's 20 years of experience developing government leaders, this highly interactive program reflects the realities of public sector leadership. Through real-world case studies, practical discussions, and peer learning, participants immediately apply new skills to their work—enhancing their ability to lead effectively, navigate complexity and drive meaningful results.

Participants will:

- Understand how emotional intelligence positively impacts and builds a more cohesive team.
- Gain skills in creating mutual accountability and giving feedback.
- Increase their confidence in managing conflict and having difficult conversations.
- Learn strategies for motivating employees through challenging times.

WHY THE PARTNERSHIP?

The Partnership for Public Service is a nonprofit, nonpartisan organization that believes good government starts with good people. We help government serve the needs of all Americans by strengthening the civil service and the systems that support it. We have trained more than 50,000 public servants across levels over the last two decades. We offer customized programs tailored to an agency's needs, off-the shelf webinars and seminars that can be adapted to an agency's context, executive coaching and open enrollment programs. Our programs are designed around our proprietary Public Service Leadership Model, which sets the standard for effective government leadership and enhances leaders' abilities to engage the federal workforce, manage change, think strategically and lead transformation and innovation.
